

Multilevel Citizenship - Program
Conference at Glendon College, York University
Friday, October 29, 2010

9:00 Welcome. Glendon Hall Ballroom.

9:15 – 10:45 Session 1

Willem Maas (York University)
“Multilevel citizenship”

Phil Triadafilopoulos (University of Toronto)
“Non-citizen Voting in Toronto: A Case of Too Little, Too Soon?”

Luicy Pedroza Espinoza (Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences)
“Denizen Enfranchisement and the Rise of Flexible Citizenship”

10:45 - 11:00 break

11:00 – 12:30 Session 2

Sheryl Lightfoot (University of British Columbia)
“The emerging indigenous rights discourse and what it demands in terms of multilevel citizenship”

Elizabeth Cohen (Syracuse University)
“Multilevel citizenship and immigration federalism”

Rogers M. Smith (University of Pennsylvania)
“Overlapping Memberships and the Duties of Governments”

1:45 – 3:15 Session 3

Elizabeth Dale (University of Florida)
“The Su Bao Case and the Layers of Everyday Citizenship in Shanghai, 1900-1905”

Will Hanley (Florida State University)
“When did Egyptians stop being Ottomans? A Case Study of Imperial Citizenship.”

Eldar Sarajlić (Central European University)
“The Dayton Imbrolio: Multilevel Citizenship and the Contested Statehood of Bosnia and Herzegovina”

3:15 – 3:30 break

3:30-5:00 Session 4

N. Türküler Isiksel (European University Institute/Columbia University)

“Citizens of a new agora: International economic institutions and the untold story of postnational citizenship”

Marc Helbling (Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung)

“Local Citizenship Politics in Switzerland: Between National Justice and Municipal Particularities”

Catherine Neveu (CNRS-EHESS, Paris)

“Sites of Citizenship, Politics of Scales”

5:00-5:30 wrap up